

BOY SPENDS NIGHT ASLEEP IN 'MOVIE' AS PARENTS SEARCH

Nine-Year-Old Stephen Is Rescued After Taking Drowsy Nap.

Stephen Salvatore, nine years old, the eldest of a family of four, lives with his parents at No. 271 Hughes avenue, in the Bronx. Stephen is fond of the "movies," and last night he begged a nickel from his mother to go to the show at No. 487 Third avenue. Midnight came and Steve had not returned. His mother, in wild alarm, went to the Tremont avenue police station, and every patrolman in that neighborhood of the Bronx was given a description of the missing boy.

All night long they searched for the little lad, and the mother anxiously paced the floor, while the father pined for the child. At eight o'clock this morning the mother sank on her bed exhausted and hysterical. Here's what had happened in the meantime:

Stephen had gone to the show and had been refused admittance by Harry Harte, the proprietor, on account of being a minor. He finally persuaded a man and a woman to take him in under their guardianship. Once safely inside, he hid to a dark corner. It was a long show and the lad fell asleep. Eleven o'clock came and the boy still slumbered. The lights were put out, the doors closed and the boy slept on. Stephen awakened from a nightmare in which wild Indians were scalping beautiful show girls, and tigers were devouring small boys. He gazed around the big deserted hall and saw the day-night struggling in through the windows. He screamed in fright and echo was his only answer. He ran to the door and pounded on the portal with tiny fists, and sobbed and kicked with his tiny little shoes. All in vain. No answer came to him.

At 8 o'clock George Nichols, an usher, went to the theatre and frightened Stephen was rescued.

WAKE UP IN FALLING HOUSE.

Families Escape When Ceiling Trembles and Building "Listens."

Two families living on the upper floors of a three-story brick building at No. 127 South Fourth street, Williamsburg, were alarmed this morning when portions of the ceiling fell to the floor and the house "listened" toward an alley that runs alongside it. There was a hasty exit of the tenants and the owner, Isaac Zakie, was notified.

Zakie communicated with the Building Inspector's office, and the tenants—the two families on the upper floors and Chinese operating a laundry on the street floor—were ordered to vacate. The building will be torn down at once.

SAINT'S CANDLE SETS FIRE; LAD'S RESCUE HURTS BARBER'S FEELINGS BY THROWING HIS PATRON SAINT INTO THE STREET.

Francisco Catano, barber, had moved his chair and his mirrors into the shop at No. 465 West Eighteenth street, beneath a big tenement there, and, pending his grand opening to-day, he erected a shrine to St. Joseph in the rear of the shop and had his thirteen-year-old son, Giuseppe, sleep there last night for good luck.

Giuseppe's cot was directly in front of the kind saint, screened from the front of the shop by portieres. Some time during the early morning the transom over the front door dropped down and, near 7 o'clock, a vagrant breeze through that opening pushed the portieres against the flame of the single candle that burned in honor of the saint.

Max Klein, the owner of the building wherein the barber shop was situated, happened to pass the front of the cluttered establishment just in time to see the curtains blazing. He broke in the door and awoke the sleeping Giuseppe as the blazing fabric fell across his cot. The fireman speedily extinguished the small blaze after they had come on the rush in answer to Klein's alarm. But what hurt Francisco Catano, the barber, most was that Klein unceremoniously pitched St. Joseph, the bringer of good luck, into the street.

LEADS DRIVER OF TAXI THAT HIT HIS AUTO TO STATION.

City Register Griffenhagen Causes Arrest, Then, Learning No One Was Hurt, Drops Case.

City Register Max S. Griffenhagen, his wife, three daughters and a son-in-law were in Mr. Griffenhagen's limousine when it was struck by a taxicab driven by Thomas Carroll of No. 263 West Sixty-eighth street at St. Nicholas avenue and One Hundred and Forty-eighth street early to-day.

The party was on the way from the Griffenhagen home at No. 720 Riverside drive to that of the son-in-law, Mr. Moskowitz, at No. 720 St. Nicholas avenue. They were all shaken up by the collision, which broke a mudguard and otherwise damaged the Griffenhagen machine.

Mr. Griffenhagen appealed to Policeman Hogan of the West One Hundred and Fifty-second street station to take Carroll to that station. Mr. Griffenhagen and the policeman went in the taxicab with Carroll and the other members of the Griffenhagen family continued on their way in the limousine. Later Mr. Griffenhagen decided to drop the case.

Former Vanderbilt Butler Slain.

SEATTLE, Wash., April 28.—Carl A. Westman, forty-eight years old, night watchman at a shipyard and formerly butler in the home of Chauncey Depew and the Vanderbilts, was found dead with a bullet in his head at Winlow, Kitap county. After a brief examination Sheriff Shattuck declared it his belief that Westman was killed during a quarrel with a woman.

HER WEIRD STORY OF ABDUCTION HID TRIP TO CABARET

Girl Told Thriller to Police, but Owned Up When Taken Home.

Seventeen at most, petite and pretty, she threw herself hysterically into the arms of Patrolman Quinn at Fifteenth street and Sixth avenue about 4 o'clock this morning, got her head as far up to his shoulder as she could reach and sobbed out a story that made the policeman himself almost weep. He gently disentangled himself from her frightened embrace and tried to soothe her.

"My poor child, what is your name?" he asked.

Still letting loose a flood of tears that rivalled the downpour of rain, the girl said: "I'm Isabella Meyers and live with my parents at No. 119 West Tenth street." Quinn helped her around to the West Seventeenth street police station.

There to Lieut. O'Connor she told the most terrible story of how she was returning modestly and properly to her home about 9.30 last night two rough men jumped out from a taxicab at Twentieth street and Sixth avenue, bundled her into the vehicle, how she fought till she became unconscious and knew nothing more until she was flung out in the pouring rain at Park avenue and Forty-second street.

To Detective Gorman she repeated all the harrowing details, never missing even a comma. The police sent for Dr. Waters of New York Hospital, and his report confirmed the doubts O'Connor and Gorman had begun to have as they noticed the girl was very dry for one who had walked in the rain for forty-second street to Fifteenth.

So Gorman took Miss Isabella home and there found mother waiting, nursing her wrath. Isabella owned up. She had been out against mamma's wish and had gone, she confessed, to a cabaret show in Jersey City with a man named James.

FOR MENTAL LANGUOR

or when regular work is arduous your strength should be promptly augmented with SCOTT'S EMULSION

Its concentrated nourishment distributes energy and power all over the body. 12-14

PICKPOCKETS' VICTIM SEIZES TWO IN 'L' CAR.

Shouts He Has Been Robbed; Woman Joins in Cry, and Policeman Takes Suspects.

Michael Mercurio of No. 147 Skillman avenue, Williamsburg, started passengers on an "L" train just pulling away from the Flushing avenue station, bound for the Williamsburg Bridge, this morning by crying out that he had been robbed of $50. He seized two men, who, he said, had jostled him and taken his purse from his hip pocket.

The two men struggled, but Mercurio retained his grip on the coat of each, while a guard notified the motorman and the whistle was sounded. A woman at the other end of the car in which the commotion occurred added to the excitement by shouting that she, too, had been robbed.

Policeman Paschold heard the whistle and entered the train at the Myer street station. He arrested the men Mercurio had been holding and took them to the Myer street police station. They said they were Alexander Goldstein of No. 503 Sutter avenue, Brownsville, and David Brown of No. 137 South Third street, Williamsburg. Both denied Mercurio's accusation, but they were held on charges of grand larceny.

One of the prisoners was said to have thrown a purse off the train just before the policeman came aboard.

DIED IN AN AMBULANCE.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day. He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Take the Right Laxative for Constipation.

Don't experiment with uncertain and harsh purgatives. They injure your bowels and cause chronic constipation.

THE NEW REMEDY
Hunyadi Janos Pills

was scientifically constructed to work gently and harmoniously on your liver, kidneys, bowels and nervous system.

Take 1 or 2 pills at night with a glass of water. No after-effects. No pain. No danger. No loss of time. No loss of appetite. No loss of strength. No loss of money.

Write for a free trial bottle to J. C. Hunyadi, New York, N. Y.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

Word of the sudden death of Edmund Pomanansky, well known in importing circles, reached his Rosedale, N. Y., home to-day.

He died in Buffalo last night within an hour from the time he was stricken with heart disease while riding in a trolley car. Mr. Pomanansky was the American representative of Oscar Kahn, a German manufacturer of art bead work. He had an office at No. 335 Broadway, but frequently he made long business trips. He had made a call on a relative, Alex. Hugel of No. 401 Oak street, Buffalo, last night and was returning to his hotel when stricken. He died in an ambulance.

ALL CARS TRANSFER TO

Bloomingdale's

Lexington to 3d Ave. 59th to 60th St.

All the Special Sales Advertised in Sunday's Papers Will Be Continued To-Morrow (Tuesday) If the Rain Kept You from Coming to Bloomingdale's To-Day—Come To-Morrow—The Store Throbs with Interest.

Beginning To-day, Our May Sale of Muslin Underwear, French Lingerie, Corsets, & Children's and Infants' Wear Presenting 100,000 new and immaculate garments at prices that make each one an unsurpassed value.

Also Our May Sale of Housekeeping Linens and Bed Clothes Laces, Embroideries, Blouses, Silks, Dress Goods, Negligees, Dresses, Etc.

Men's & Youths' $16 & $18 Suits at $11.88

Continuing our timely special sale! The suits in this offering are all strictly hand tailored in the late Spring and Summer models and ordinarily sell for the values we quote above.

THE MATERIALS ARE silk mixtures, plain blue serge, shepherd plaids, plain gray serge, fancy stripe worsteds, fancy chevrons, in brown, gray and tan, black and white plaids.

THE MODELS ARE two-button suits, English models; three-button suits and Norfolk models; trousers have belt loops; also with and without cuff buttons.

SIZES: 15 to 22 years for youths, and 33 to 50 chest measure.

There are suits for young men who want dash and go and suits for men who like conservative models; in fact, a suit to satisfy every man's taste. They are all made and trimmed in the best possible manner.

We also have in regular stock and in pleasing variety, all the new models and materials at $10, $15, $18.50, $20.00, $24.00 and $29.00.

Men's Clothing Dept., 2d Fl.

Summer Silk Hosiery for Women, Men & Girls, 24c

Worth considerably more. Offer comprises:

Women's Pure Thread Silk Stockings, silk all the way up to the top; 4-inch garter web; in a choice of colors and black and white; all sizes, at..... 24c

Men's Pure Silk Half Hose, in fancy striped jacquard and plain colors; all first quality hose, in a variety of shades and black; at..... 24c

Fine Silk Stockings for Young Girls; splendid assortment 1x1 ribbed good quality silk stockings; sizes for girls 24c and misses; white and black; at..... 24c

Our regular Silk Hosiery stocks comprise everything from 35c to $3.98 for women, and 15c and $1.75 for men.

Male Dept.

Implements to Make Everything in Your Garden Lovely

If you have a garden, your pride in its appearance will lead you to take every possible means to make it as beautiful as your neighbor's. You need help? Here is every kind of help, so economically priced that there can be no good reason for being without them:

Malleable Garden Rakes

Steel Garden Rakes

	10 teeth..... 18c
	14 teeth..... 22c
	15 teeth..... 24c
12 teeth..... 20c
Gibb Wire Rakes.....	29c and 34c
Wood Lawn Rakes.....	42c
Hoe and Rake Combined	24c and 29c
Garden Hoes.....	20c and 29c
Spading Forks.....	66c to 84c
Garden Spades.....	66c to $1.25
Round Pointed Shovels.....	69c to $1.25
Square Pointed Shovels.....	69c to $1.25
Garden Trowels.....	6c to 64c
Grass Hooks.....	22c and 39c
Pruning Shears.....	19c to 59c
Weed Diggers.....	29c
Flower Bed Edging, cut in lengths to suit—16 inches high, 12c ft.; 22 inches high, 14c ft.

12 teeth.....	32c	14 teeth.....	39c
16 teeth.....	43c	18 teeth.....	79c
Garden Sets (four pieces, steel).....			$1.40

Garden Sets (three pieces).....	69c and 84c
Turf Edgers.....	52c and $1.25
Hedge Shears.....	97c and $1.25
Grass Shears.....	26c to 84c
Garden Barrows.....	$3.24 to $4.40